WWI Civilian Draft Registrations

Free Database

Description:

In 1917 and 1918, approximately 24 million men, (98 percent of men present in America), born between 1873 and 1900 completed draft registration cards. During these two years, three registration days were held in each district where the registrant completed the registration card. Information found on these cards generally included, among other information, birth date, birth location, father's birthplace, and the address of next of kin. This civilian registration is often confused with induction into the military; however, only a small percentage of these men were actually called up for military service.

Originally posted to Ancestry.com in January of 1998 and taken from the original draft cards, this database provides information on some of the men registered. This update, part of an ongoing project, adds over 300,000 names to the previously posted database and brings the total number of names provided to 1.2 million. It adds information on registrants from Florida, Mississippi, and South Dakota.

It should be noted that aliens were required to register but were not subject to induction into the American military. Persons already in the military did not register. Recent Italian emigrants wrote their last names first, resulting in some cards being filed under first names. Cards of Hispanics may be filed under their mother's maiden name surname if the registrant gave both parents' surnames. Also, men who resided in British territories sometimes listed themselves simply as British citizens without noting their origin in Canada, Australia, Ireland, Jamaica, etc. Illiterate men were unable to spell their names and birth location, so researchers should be quite flexible in searching for the spelling of names of illiterate men.

NOTE: This database, although providing information on over 5% of all men registered, represents approximately 13% of all counties nationwide. Researchers will find complete coverage of Alaska, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Mississippi, and Nevada and a good representation from Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Illinois, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nebraska, New York City, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah and Vermont.

Extended Description:

In 1917 and 1918, approximately 24 million men born between 1873 and 1900 completed draft registration cards. Those who are not familiar with draft procedures often confuse this civilian registration with induction into the military. In reality, a minority of those civilian men who registered were ever called up for military service.

The draft was essential in raising the large numbers of men needed. Voluntary enlistment had not produced the needed number. Establishment of a draft was controversial in both the U.S. and Britain. President Wilson proposed the American draft and characterized it as necessary to make "shirkers" play their part in the war. This argument won over key swing votes in Congress.

Aliens residing in the United States were required to register for the draft although they were not subject to induction into the American military. In some frontier locations, such as Alaska, aliens formed the majority of registrants.

Men already on active duty in the military were excluded from draft registration. Because some men who completed draft cards later voluntarily enlisted, it is difficult to determine exactly how many active duty military men never completed a draft card, but the number would be between 300,000 and 600,000. Registration of eligible men has been determined to be close to 100%, which means that about 98% of adult men under age 46 living in the U.S. in 1917-18 completed registration cards.

During this 1917-18 period, an especially virulent influenza pandemic killed mostly young adults. As this influenza situation affected draft registration, some men under age 21 were dead by the time it came their turn to register in 1918.

In practice, only three draft lotteries were held. Those registrants whose numbers were drawn were then subject to induction unless they could show good cause why they should not be inducted. The three registration days for these lotteries were held:

a) June 5, 1917 for persons born 1886-1896. About 10 million men registered on this date. Those who completed this registration card listed birth date, birth location and other information. Because of specific opposition from Congress, 18-20 year olds were initially exempt.

b) June 5, 1918 for persons born 1896-97. This group of about one million men who had recently become old enough to be drafted during the preceding year registered on this date. Those who completed this registration card listed birth date, birth location and other information. They also listed their father's birth location. About half of these men had only vague information about their father's birth location.

c) September 12, 1918 for persons born 1873-1886 and 1897-1900. Almost 14 million men registered on this date. Those who completed this registration card listed birth date, but not birth location. A detailed listing of the address of next of kin on this card, however, can provide valuable information, especially in cases of recent immigrants.

In addition, a tiny number of men who turned 21 in August, 1918, registered in that month.

A small number of dates on the cards vary from these three registration dates. These probably represent errors or registration filings by persons who were prevented from registering on the designated dates. A few men were allowed to register early due to hardship situations, including a situation where they were scheduled to be traveling or out-of-town on registration day. This was so interpreted in New York, for example, to allow the wealthy business executive John D. Rockefeller Jr. to register early because of a business trip.

On the designated registration days, businesses and schools closed down in most communities. Saloons closed in most states. Registration started at 7 or 7:30 a.m. and lasted until late at night. In New York City, boat horns were blown to announce the start of registration, and in Provo, Utah whistles performed a similar function. In Vicksburg, MS, church bells and whistles were used. In Jackson, MS, cannons at the old state capitol building were to have been fired at the start of registration, but organizers had difficulty finding gunpowder. Similar noise-making events occurred across the country.

Family members often came with the registrant to the registration site.

Patriotic parades were held on the first registration day, as in Spanish Fork, UT, where registrants were included in the automobile parade. In Memphis, TN 25,000 marched in a loyalty parade. General Wood addressed parade participants in Birmingham, AL. In Hinds Co., MS, a regimental band went from one registration place to another, playing patriotic music for the registrants.

On the first registration date, it was intended that the tally of registrants was to be wired that night to Washington, but most boards were not able to meet this goal because they were overwhelmed with the task of processing registrants. Some boards had to call for additional volunteer staff due to the large number of registrants. In Salt Lake City, a deputized registrar made a tour of the hospital on registration day registering men unable to leave the hospital. These hospitalized men could also have appointed someone to obtain the registration card prior to registration day from the city or county clerk.

Volunteer interpreters were recruited and assisted with the registration of those who did not speak English. New York City reported a shortage of interpreters, especially of those who spoke uncommon languages.

In the vast majority of cases, volunteer staff at the local office filled in the information on the card, and the registrant then signed his name. Instructions for filling in each question on the card were posted for all to read at each registration site, and the local newspapers sometimes printed copies of sample cards in the days prior to registration. One photo taken in New York City shows an all-female staff at a long table interviewing seated registrants. Many of these women were teachers from the city schools, which had closed for the day.

A few of the microfilmed cards are actually copies of the signed originals, and the signatures on these copies thus exhibit the same handwriting as the rest of the card. The microfilmed cards of the 35 boards in Detroit, MI seem to all be copies which have been alphabetized into a unified set combining all the Detroit boards into one file.

If the draft registration district were densely populated, as in New York City, then only one site was typically available for registration. More commonly, multiple sites were made available in each county, often corresponding to voting sites.

Men who registered were given bluish green certificates to prove they had registered. The certificate was embossed with an eagle at the top and merely stated who had registered where on what date. This certificate was signed by a registrar. In Utah, the Salt Lake Tribune stated that law officers could demand to see this registration certificate at any time, and a man without a card was then subject to investigation. Also, passports were not issued to men in the affected age groups unless they could produce draft registration certificates. The Vicksburg Evening Post warned its western Mississippi readers that the federal government could easily determine who had not registered through school, insurance and other records, and the impression was also left that registrants' names would soon be printed in the newspaper so the public could determine who had not registered. This paper also reported that such sensational rumors had spread around on registration day that some black registrants rushed to their registration site in an out-of-breath state. There is no available evidence that extraordinary measures were taken to track down those who failed to register.

What Do I Do Now?

Researchers are encouraged to view the original registration card to which this index refers, as it has not been possible to include in the index all the information on the cards, such as street address of next of kin and detailed infomation about locations.

These registration cards have been microfilmed by the U.S. National Archives and Records Administration. A copy of this microfilm is available through the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and is housed at the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, UT and available in branch family history centers throughout the world. The draft card microfilm reels are listed in the church's Family History Library Catalog under UNITED STATES -- MILITARY RECORDS -- WORLD WAR I.

Headline: RUSSELL A. PRICE GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Publication Date: May 04, 1995
Source: The Sacramento Bee

Subjects:
Region: Pacific Rim; Northern California
Obituary: A memorial service for Russell A. Price, a general contractor in the Sacramento area for 30 years, will take place at 11 a.m. Saturday in the chapel at Mercy General Hospital, 4001 J St. Inurnment will be private.

Mr. Price died of cancer Monday in a Carmichael nursing home at age 73.

The native of Adger, Ala., was born at home on Feb. 7, 1921.

During World War II, Mr. Price served with the Army in the Philippines. In 1956, he moved to California, and settled in Sacramento four years later.

Mr. Price opened Price Rite Builders in 1964 and specialized in room-over-garage conversions for 30 years until his retirement last year.

He played the guitar, spoons, jug, comb, washboard and sticks, and wrote and sang many country and gospel songs. Several of his children established musical careers. His son Rick "sang every song he could think of" to his father shortly before he died, according to his daughter, Pati Rader.

Mr. Price was also known for his generosity, and often spent his mornings at a restaurant where he would buy breakfast for the hungry. He opened his own home to the homeless and once gave his car away to someone who simply needed a car.

Mr. Price is survived by his wife, Elizabeth of Sacramento; sons, Bill and Mike of Toledo, Ohio, and Rick of Davis; daughters, Janet Price of Toledo and Pati Rader of Sacramento; stepsons, Mike Chapman of Rio Linda, Benjamin Rodriguez of Sacramento and Manuel Rodriguez of Berkeley; brothers, Ted of Toledo and Terrel of Phoenix; sister, Iler May Groves of Toledo; 12 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. He was preceded in death by brothers, Clarence and Clifford.

The family requests that any remembrances be made to Mercy Hospice, 9940 Business Park Drive, Sacramento, 95827.

Message: Samuel Cannon would have been my Gr Gr Gr Grandfather. I also show he was born in 1805 in Ohio and died in 1884, I'm guessing in Oregon which he came to in 1854 from Clinton, Iowa. I have not located where he is buring however. He and Susannah Eyler had a daughter and 4 sons. Their daughters name was Sarah Johnson Cannon, born 12/15/1837 in Lake County, Indiana (she was my gr gr grandmother. She married Samuel Handsaker. I do not have the names of any of the sons. Apparently they came on the Oregon Trail to Oregon but have nothing after that.

I show Susannah Eyler Cannon died Jan. 1854 in Iowa shortly before they left for Oregon. Samuel Cannon re-married in Oregon to Mary Evans around 1854-1855.

I have a newspaper article of an interview with Sarah Cannon where she discusses her family's trip to Oregon. If you want to give me your address I will be happy to send it to you along with any other info I can put together.

Hope this info is helpful. I would appreciate any information you can give me on the Cannon family.

Thanks
Janice

Subject: WARREN(S) of Indiana/ Can anyone connect?

Posted by: toni

Message: James Warren born Nov1850, 1900 Soundex has him listed as being born in Marshall Co,Ind (Tippecanoe Twp). His age then was listed as 49. James was married to Malinda J, dob 5/1853 age at the time 49.
His childeren are listed also,

Bertha M, 17yr's daughter, 11/1862

Jesse E, 15yr's Son, 2/1884

32523 Della D, 14yr's daughter, 4/1886

Harley S, 12yr's Son, 11/1887

Fannie M, 7yr's daughter, 5/1893

I think Harley must have died before 1956 as he was not listed in Jesse's obit, Also there is another sister listed in his obit as Gertie she must have been born sometime after 1900.
I also have the married name's of these sister's /
Gertie Railsback of Argos,Ind.
Bertha Senour Of South Bend,Ind.
Della Iler of South Bend,Ind.
Fannie Clark of Warsaw,Ind.

If you can connect to this info Please email me at thornbaker@yahoo.com
I would be soooo very grateful for any help.

Thank's so much,Toni

Subject: Iler & Craver

Posted by: Gary A. Craver 19529 19530

Message: Carly, Philetus Filmore ILER's wife Mary CRAVER is my great grand aunt. Her brother, John Lewis CRAVER is my great grandfather.

19466 19465

Mary CRAVER's sister, Lydia S. CRAVER also married an ILER, Joseph H. Iler. I don't have any other ILERs in my Family Tree (yet), but have quite a bit of CRAVER information .... mostly from the Troy, NY area (Rensselaer County).

I would love to compare notes and add whatever ILER information that you have to my data. Please e-mail me directly at either gary.craver@geps.ge.com (office address) or at gcraver1@nycap.rr.com (home).

Message #24 Thursday, March 16, 2000

Subject: George EÜLER & Mary ILLMAN

Posted by: George EYLER 32883

Message: My great greadfather,George EÜLER, lived in Woodstock Twp., Schuyler County, IL. from 1850 until he died there in 1897.

The surname of his brothers & his descendants mutated from EÜLER to EUYLER TO EILER & finally to EYLER. My own father was listed in the 1910 census as an ILER.

George EÜLer was divorced by his first wife(my great grandmother) in Oct.,1860 citing mental & physical cruelty. George then married Mary ILLMAN on 23 March,1861. Mary was the widow of Adolphus ILLMAN. Mary had a son, Charles A. ILLMAN.

George EÜLER & Mary ILLMAN EÜLER had two additional children. They were Mary Elizabeth EÜLER & Anna Margaret EÜLER.

Anna Margaret EÜLER married August LEMKAU & moved to Oakland, CA. in 1882.

Mary Elizabeth EÜLER was born about October, 1861 or perhaps even before the marriage of George EÜLER & Mary ILLMAN.

In his will, George EÜLER left Mary Elizabeth the sum of $300.00, stating " she is married to a man unknown to me." No subsequent papers have been found showing that the money was delivered to her. Charles A. ILLMAN was the administrator of the estate.

Mary Elizabeth EÜLER could have married under any one of the above names or even another, but no EYLER has yet determined whom she married & where.

It is that mystery that I am trying to solve. Can any of you help.

Thanks.

George EYLER

MY SON-IN-LAW IS DALE WAYNE GAINES, SON OF WAYNE GAINES AND GRAND-SON OF CLYDE RAYMOND GAINES AND GREAT-GRANDSON OF JOHN K. GAINES OF BIRMINGHAM, AL. ANY HELP WOULD BE APPRECIATED SINCE NO-ONE IN DALE'S FAMILY SEEMS TO HAVE MUCH DATA. I'M RETIRED AND I FIND THIS HOBBY ENJOYABLE AND YOU SOUND(READ) LIKE SUCH A NICE GUY THAT I THINK YOU AND DALE WOULD ENJOY KNOWING ONE ANOTHER. MY FAMILY TIES ARE ILER(MY MOTHER'S MAIDEN NAME),JONES , ANDERSON, BENNETT, DONALDSON, NEVILS, WISE, AND BACK TO THE KINGS OF SCOTLAND AND BARON SURETIES OF THE MAGNA CARTA. I WAS IN NEW ORLEANS RECENTLY AND ASKED ABOUT GENERAL GAINES AND THE DAUGHTER OF THE IRISH CONSUL THAT HE GOT INVOLVED WITH LATE IN HIS HISTORY. THE GUIDE KNEW ABOUT IT BUT WAS RELUCTANT TO TALK ABOUT IT FOR SOME REASON. I HAVE COPIES OF THAT IF YOU WANT THEM. I HAVE TO GO NOW BUT I WANT TO KEEP IN TOUCH.

Annual ILER REUNION
Sunday, July 16, 2000, 1:15 p. m. Potluck
JOHN R PARK HOMESTEAD
915 County Road 50E
Harrow, Ontario, CANADA NOR 1GO - 1/519/738-2029 - Janet Cobban - Lady in Charge.

First of all . . . welcome! Sorry to inform you our Geneological Cousin, Morgan Burritt Iler was on a trip to Massacusetts but became ill and he headed back to Omaha. He was not feeling well and a possibility of prescription problems of medications

Opening Hymn: PRAISE GOD, FROM WHOM ALL BLESSINGS FLOW:
PRAISE HIME, ALL CREATURES HERE BELOW:
PRAISE HIM ABOVE, YE HEAV'NLY HOST:
PRAISE FATHER, SON AND HOLY GHOST. AMEN!

Led in prayer . . .

Sit down and enjoy the food and fellowship where serving are placed and have a good visit.

The meeting will be held in the air-conditioned room in the red barn on east of the lot. Bob's display of pictures, books, etc. will be in this room. This follows the demonstration of Ken Turner's dog "Rosco" who sniffs out firearms and drugs. People liked it so well we asked for a repeat. Then on video "how we look for grave sites with two hangers, two spools and a watchful eye.

Also, the old Scratch-Wright-Iler Loom that "Winnie" Lordina (Wright) Iler made rugs on for many years with people bringing their ball of rags to weave into rugs. I have several of these rugs. She also made a quilt for my graduation from high school when I graduated from BIG BEAVER HIGH SCHOOL in Troy, Michigan. Recently, Dorothy Gascoyne of Harrow gave me a rug that my g randmother wove for her with the rags she collected. She thought I would enjoy having it.

The brother of our Jacob Iler, Samuel Eilar of New Castle, Indiana, had a few coming but had to cancel out. They have been here two to three times in the past.

Morgan Burritt Iler was on his way here in a round-about-trip going as far as Massachusetts, but illness over took him and he went back to Omaha, Nebraska with a problem of prescription changes. I have been in contact with him and hope to reach him before the reunion with a report to you all.

We are most grateful to Morgan for his great contribution to the history of the Ilers, Oilers, Eilars, etc., etc., and his count is around 47,000 in listings. That's more than I can count. His father Burritt Iler, was born in the old brick house on the Century Farm the end of Iler Road and where the old peartree is located. Solomon Iler I was his grandfather; and thru his second wife, my Aunt Kit, Morgan was born and his father was 66 when Morgan was born! At one time the old peartree bore over 40 bushels. That's real apple sauce!

Some birthdays in family connections for you:

Dear Morgan: Oct. 26,2000

My daughterinlaw gave me this article from our local newspaper recently, which discusses some remarks about theme park in the Lawrence Kansas newspaper wherean Indian named Jimmie Oyler who claims to be a chief is protesting the theme park.

My question is have heard of any of our family who are Indians in this area?

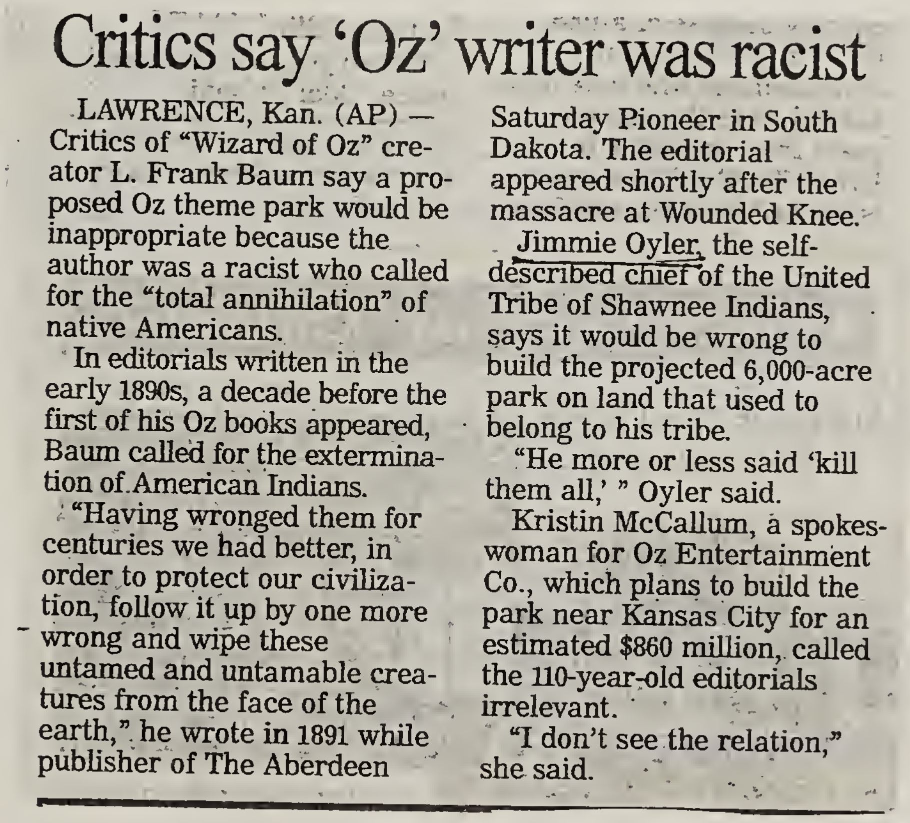
I know that several of our relatives have lived in Kansas, but this is a different approach to our family, and I was curious to know if any of our family claimed to be Indians.

Regards

Monroe

Monroe

DECATUR, IL.



Critics say 'Oz' writer was racist

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Critics of "Wizard of Oz" creator L. Frank Baum say a proposed Oz theme park would be inappropriate because the author was a racist who called for the "total annihilation" of native Americans.

In editorials written in the early 1890s, a decade before the first of his Oz books appeared, Baum called for the extermination of American Indians.

"Having wronged them for centuries we had better, in order to protect our civilization, follow it up by one more wrong and wipe these untamed and untamable creatures from the face of the earth," he wrote in 1891 while publisher of The Aberdeen Saturday Pioneer in South Dakota. The editorial appeared shortly after the massacre at Wounded Knee.

Jimmie Oyler, the self-described chief of the United Tribe of Shawnee Indians, says it would be wrong to build the projected 6,000-acre park on land that used to belong to his tribe.

"He more or less said 'kill them all,' " Oyler said.

Kristin McCallum, a spokeswoman for Oz Entertainment Co., which plans to build the park near Kansas City for an estimated $860 million, called the 110-year-old editorials irrelevant.

"I don't see the relation," she said.

History of Eilar/Pressel
Thanksgiving Reunions

The Eilars are descendants of Swiss-German origin. Conrad Iller (Oellen) came to Philadelphia on the ship Allen, September 11, 1729, after a 70 day trip from the Netherlands (Holland). He brought with him his wife, Anna Margaret (Gemelcks), and 4 daughters, Elizabeth, Catherine, Maria Dorothea, and Anna Barbara and 2 sons, Jacob and Valentine.

This Reunion dates back to the early years when the Samual Eilar family lived on the old Pressel farm near New Lisbon, Indiana, also known as "Jim Town." Family and friends gathered on Thanksgiving Day to renew fellowship, feast and give thanks for the years' bountiful harvest and God's blessings.

Early Thanksgiving Day the men and some of the women would go rabbit hunting. Besides rabbit for dinner there was always a big turkey. Francis Laurie , Bill Renke and Gene Dickerson found pleasure in carving the turkeys.

In the early 1970's the celebration of the November birthdays were added to honor the November birthday of Alpha Lenora Eilar.

Two of our Iler Cousins from the Jacob branch of our ancestry have been attending our reunions for several years. Genealogist, Morgan B. Iler of Omaha, Nebraska , has brought us interesting information about the family history; and, Robert (Bob) Iler from Royal Oak, Michigan, displays family artifacts and pictures and directs the music.

For several years after Lenora Eilar's death, Frances (Eilar) Clapp continued hosting the Thanksgivings Reunions at the family farm home on Road 325 East of New Castle. From 1988-1990 the reunion was hosted by Dr. Norman Eilar and his wife, Helen, in New Carlisle, Ohio. Since that time the reunion has been hosted by Dixie Ford, Frances and Herbert Clapp in the W. G. Smith Building at the Henry County Memorial Park in New Castle, Indiana. In 1989 the meeting date was changed to the first or second Saturday in November, so families could all be home on Thanksgiving Day. In 1999, ninety-two (92) family members and friends attended the reunion.

As the gathering of the Thanksgiving tradition still continues today, it bonds the past to the present and pays tribute to our family clan and friends. The same Thanksgiving customs, and motto "EVERYONE IS WELCOME!," prevails today.

THANKSGIVING DAY
(Traditional)

Over the river and through the woods, to Grandfather's house we go;
The horse knows the way to carry the sleigh thro' the white and drifted snow.

Over the river and through the woods, Oh, how the wind does blow, it stings the toes and bites the nose, as over the ground we go.

Over the river and through the woods. Trot fast my dapple gray!
Spring over the ground like a hunting hound, for this is Thanksgiving Day!

Over the river and through the woods, now Grandmother's face I spy.
Hurrah for the fun, is the pudding done? Hurrah for the pumpkin pie!

Thanksgiving Day
(Millennium)

Over the interstate, to the park, to Eilar Reunion we go.
The Clan knows the way, this joyful day, to honorThanksgiving Day .

Over the leaves and past the ponds this beautiful Autumn day.
Hurrah for the fun, the turkey is done! Hurrah for the pumpkin pie!
Hurrah for the pumpkin pie!

"Families are like circles, never ending"

an,

Thank you for your email. I have more concerning those obits:

y thanks for the obits. They arrived today.

George Eiler and Eva Eiler go with Michael Eiler's family tree descendents.

EY?

r Eyler I think has no connection.

x5361

(Eiler) Frehafer COULD be a close connection, if I can match her as el Eiler's grand-daughter (by his first son Charles),thru Daniel's narriage. If this isn't Charles' Kate, she still most likely fits he Schuylkill Haven EILER family somehow !!

ls S. Eiler. I looked up his family on 1910 census. Do not know who ard Eiler's parents were.

Howard I. Eiler		28, Pa. Lebanon County	b. 1882
Ida W.	(wife)	31, Pa.	1885
Madeline S.		02, Pa.

ald Witman, son of John & Myrtle (Eiler) Witman. I may find out that Myrtle Eiler is a daughter to Harry Eiler by his first wife Laura .

49909?

a good day.
